My trip to Gressenhall and Dreamy hollow by Findlay McLeod

On Tuesday, year five went on a trip to Gressenhall and Dreamy Hollow. We left at 09.15 and arrived at 10.00 after we arrived at Gressenhall we met Jim and Rachel in the marquee Jim said “turner class is going to have a lesson based on one hundred years ago”. Rachel gave us a tore in the warehouse we left marquee to have a lesson based on one hundred years ago! We lined up in boys and girls. And in class room one side of the class room was boys and other was girls we learnt by rote and a pome called psalm after that we got a tore by Rachel gave us facts and stories and we walk back for lunch. After lunch, we got into a circle to tell every won what we leant and we got on coach Dreamy Hollow we finally and we saw two soldiers? One was called Sargent Taller was a lovat scout and Dave. Dave and Sargent Taller took us to the trenches the were fact maps we had to crouch down all the way through the trenches the were gun shots we got to the watch out we all tried on a balaclava we walked
