

My version of Flo of the Somme

This is Flo a hero that saved lives. breaching through camp, was a strong hero dog who serves in the medical corps. She is awesome at saving lives and wears a medical kit.

The brave Soldier Ray was pulling super hard on the poor donkey across the filthy vile no man's land.

The poor busted pilot's were stuck under the plane wreck. Luckily, the super dog Flo found and saved the injured pilot's.

This is the pigeon shot in the wing. whimpering in pain, the pigeon was dying in Ray's hand with blood leaking out ever so slightly was carrying

As that day came to a halt, the exhausted, happy and tired were then welcomed home. Flo and ray were heroes.

a message for ray saying people are wounded.
