

Lilly Rose Page's autobiography

Home, Parents, and Family!

Family.

I was born on the 18 of March 1903. I lived with my mummy Loewe brown-fella, my dad Charly Page, my 2 sisters Emma and Oliver also Joe, Bill and Harry they are my 3 brothers and we all lived on Nelson Street number 51 in a 2 up, 2 down house. Me and my sisters slept in a Smalberamp bed. The toilet was in a shed in a hole that was in the garden.

SCHOOL IN THE 1900S.

I went to Nelson Street School. We had separate entrances for boys and girls. The boys and girls had different play grounds. In class the boys sat on the left the girls sat on the left. My teacher's name was Miss Clark. My best friend in school was Ella M. Leeders.

MEMORABLE moments

MEMORABLE MOMENT

On 1st of January 1912 the best thing happened to me I had a visit from King George the Fifth. In August there was a flood! Over night there was lots of rain and it flooded all of England well only Norwich. All my toys and books got wet and I got parst through a window.
