

Jude's Autobiography

I was born on November the 17 in 1903. I lived with my mum Amy, my dad James, my 4 sisters and my 6 brothers I lived in Sandringham Road, Heigham. Our house was quite small with only two bedrooms upstairs and a kitchen and living room downstairs. The toilet was outside. I had to share my bed with my 4 sisters and my 6 brothers.

Victorian
toilets

Victorian
class

I hated school because if you were naughty, they got a belt and slap you with it and then they logged it in a book. The ceilings were high in the school because apparently the bacteria went up.