Sunday,

Dear diary,

As I woke, I remembered I moved to Higham, that's why I felt so strange.
I also remembered I had to go to school that day. I got dressed and went to go down stairs but I realised I had forgotten my socks. I got the and went down stairs to join my triplets Ava and Ellie-mae.

My school was five minutes away so it didn't take long time to get there. I got bored biking to school and waiting out side. I still got encredibly work even though I was standing still. I also had a strict teacher so I felt sad.

After school, we had dinner. I was yummy dumplings yellow butter and white bread.
It was so yummy.

Before bed I had a bath because I was dirty from school. I also had a nice dream.
